

TAREA 1

Dear colleague,

First of all let me introduce myself. I am Lt Martinez, SP Army, and I am currently deployed in Kampala (Uganda) as ISTR S-2 chief. The reason of my e-mail is because I have been told that you will be replacing me the next 9th October. I thought it would be a good idea to give you some details on the compound and its facilities.

Comentario [g3]: about

As soon as you arrive you should go to the S-1 Office. There, they will assign you a room in the officer's barrack. The barrack consists of two floors of 12 rooms each a communal bathroom. Every room has two beds and it has been planned to host two officers. The room is about 20 sq meters and it has only one window. The room also offers a locker but, be careful, it is too small to keep the equipment in so you will need to order some supplementary boxes that you can leave in one of the existing empty rooms. The power is 125V and there are no other electronic devices in the room.

Comentario [g4]: "you should go to Office S-1"

Comentario [g5]: Add "with"

Comentario [g6]: Not necessary

Apart from the accommodation the camp has a welfare area with a bar, a small gym and an officer's mess. You will also find a room with a washing machine and iron on the second floor of the barrack.

Please do not hesitate in contact me if you have any doubts or questions. I hope you will enjoy your time here.

TAREA 2

Dear sir,

As you know I have been deployed to Kampala for six months. Here I have had the opportunity to meet many people. During a meeting with some British officers in the mess I was talking about Strasbourg Headquarters and when I mentioned that my chief was a British captain called Kasapian one of the officers stated that he knew him.

Comentario [g9]: Strasburg

Probably his name will mean nothing to you but Captain Smith is about 35 years old and quite tall; with a short moustache, black hair and brown eyes. Although the most significant feature of his face is his nose which I consider to be quite prominent. Apart from this, he also has a visible long scar under his right ear.

Comentario [g10]: Incorrect order. "His name will probably mean nothing to you"

Regarding his personality he is quite sociable: always smiling and telling jokes. I have never seen him upset. As far as sport is concerned he loves rugby. He showed me some pictures taken at Twickenham Stadium during the Final Cup.

Comentario [g11]: Sounds a bit odd. Suggestion: "As for sports, he loves..."

He told me he was a lieutenant of your company a long time ago in the 64th Regiment (Manchester) where he met his current wife. He said that his wife was a very good friend of yours. He asked me to contact you to tell you they are expecting a baby.

Yours faithfully

Lt Martinez

TAREA 3

Hi Julio,

How are you doing? I am still deployed in Kampala and will continue till next 20th October. At the moment things are going fine. Last Saturday we received the visit of the Spanish Ambassador here in our Camp. The Ambassador arrived at 11:00am at Kampala Airport. I was commissioned by the HQ to receive the authority and as soon as he has picked up his luggage we drove him back to the camp. Once we were in the vehicle I could see a small red spot on his nose, I guess caused by a mosquito. In the Camp the Spanish Military Senior hosted a short welcoming event. First he gave a short speech explaining the mission and different aspects related to the UN and the situation in Uganda. The Ambassador was very interested in knowing how life is for the Spanish military forces in Uganda. After a brief breakfast served in the office mess we visited the Camp facilities. During the visit he was introduced to the Uganda UN Mission Chief General Bukimba. The General was very nice and pleasant with the Ambassador because he wanted to take his holidays in Spain. In the end the Ambassador suggested phoning him once he had finished his mission. The visit was planned to be concluded with a lunch in a Kampala restaurant but finally it was cancelled because the Ambassador got sick.

The truth was a different story. After the meeting with Bukimba, I realized that the small spot had grown a lot. By that time you could no longer see the nose for the spot which made me laugh. I supposed it was the real cause of the cancellation.

As you can see It was a very funny day

Hope to see you soon
