

TAREA 1

Dear Lt. Jones,

I would like to provide you some useful information about the living and work conditions that you will be in your soon arrival to Kampala.

Comentario [s1]: working

Comentario [s2]: find when you arrive in

As you know, we have two different places, one for living and the other for work. The European Union contingent are living in Kampala Great Hotel, where we have all the facilities that you can imagine for a five star hotel, the most important for me is the internet access, and with it the possibility of use some free programs to be in contact with the family. For more information about it you can find it in the NET

Comentario [s3]: is staying in the

Comentario [s4]: using some of the

Comentario [s5]: should have a look at

The daily work takes place in a military camp nine kilometers away from the hotel. ***122 words to here: remember your limit was 100 +/- 10 % Every morning, with the exception of Sunday, the EU contingent takes the bus at 8:00 a.m., and the normal activities begin at 8:30 and finalize at 5:00. The training camp is very hard mostly because you don't have any shadow and there is a lot of hot, but the facilities for the Somalis soldiers are not too bad, the barracks, class, mess and so on is quite well.

Comentario [s6]: day-to-day

I know that this is a very little information, but if you need something more, please don't hesitate to contact with me.

Best regards.

Lt. Martínez. E.U. Mission in Kampala

TAREA 2

Dear Sir,

As you know, I'm posted in Kampala, in the European Union mission. Here with me is an English Captain, his name is Lucas Smith and he was under your orders in "The Second Lancers Battalion", in London five years ago. At this time he was Lieutenant and I suppose that you remind he, Cap. Smith, who is in his early thirties, is not too tall, about 1,75 meters, but well built, with red hair carefully cut, and big blue eyes. Out of work he is usually dressed in jeans and Hawaiian shirt.

Comentario [s7]: as part of

Comentario [s8]: was a

Comentario [s9]: remember that

Comentario [s10]: outside

He is a very kindly person and usually treats everyone with respect and in critical situations he always appears calm and he often treats the soldiers like a father does with his sons.

Comentario [s11]: as a father would his sons/as if they were his own sons.

I hope that with this brief description you know about whom I am speaking.

Regards to your wife and have a very good day.

Yours sincerely

Lt. Martinez

TAREA 3

Kampala, 29 September 2011

Dear Luis,

I write this letter mainly to send notices about my new and temporary post in Kampala. I arrived to Uganda the last Saturday and all is quite well.

I want to tell you a funny event that happened in Columbus Day. You know how is our friend Angel, and this event is connected with he.

To celebrate this party, the Spanish contingent in Kampala planned some official functions, first of all we had a Mass and the Spanish ambassador in Uganda was invited. After the Mass all the people went to the restaurant where the ambassador made a speech. Just in the middle of the speech appeared Angel, dressed like a bullfighter with a radio cassette under his arm and the volume very high doing the typical "paseillo". Can you imagine Angel and ambassador faces? It was very fun.

All best wishes Luis.

Lt. Martinez

Comentario [s12]: Give you some news

Comentario [s13]: in

Comentario [s14]: not necessary

Comentario [s15]: about a

Comentario [s16]: on

Comentario [s17]: what our friend angel is like

Comentario [s18]: to him

Comentario [s19]: occasion

Comentario [s20]: Angel appeared

Comentario [s21]: as

Comentario [s22]: the ambassador's

Comentario [s23]: funny

Remember to keep to the word limit-you went over it in all three exercises.